Welcome to recruit3

Goodmoves was launched in September 2006 as an alternative recruitment advertising package for third sector organisations in Wales. Now rebranded as recruit3, it is the first bilingual job website in Wales, exclusively for the third sector.

We know that when you have job vacancies, it's vital to find talented, passionate people to fill them. recruit3 works exclusively within the third sector, so we understand the importance of your group's core values – and we can help you find staff who feel the same.

recruit3 offers free ad placement for trustee and board member vacancies, excellent rates for all other roles, and a community section in which charities and voluntary organisations can promote news and events. It's your one-stop shop for third sector recruitment.

Where will my advert appear?

As soon as we take your booking, your advert will go live on our website until the closing date – and the fee will be the same, no matter if the deadline is one or four weeks away. The advert will also appear for a week in The Big Issue (published on Monday) and Network Jobs (published on Wednesday).
